Notes to Catalogue 105

This is the second of a series of three catalogues of books ABOUT Churchill which I have produced, based on the new Zoller Bibliography. (n.b.- Signed copies of the Zoller Bibliography available for $75.00, for details see: http://www.wscbooks.com/Reference\_Books.php)

This lists about 170 premium books including rarities, signed copies, review copies, foreign editions, and books in premium condition. There is virtually nothing in here that you could find on the internet. The print is small but you should read the descriptions carefully.

Also available:

Catalogue 106- THE REFERENCE COLLECTION. This lists and illustrates about 700 books, all in the best possible condition, including at least 100 titles never offered anywhere else. This is my reference collection and is the most complete collection anywhere. It is offered as a lot. But the catalogue provides illustrations of the many of the rarities in Zoller which most collectors have never seen, so is a useful reference on its own. Price $10.00

How to read the catalogue entries

Each book entry has a catalogue number and title in bold above. There is a picture to the left. The photos on items 1-12 are of the exact books. The photos on items 13-170 are standard images for that title, and may not be the exact book listed. The paragraph on each book gives first the author; then place, publisher, and year. Next is a background on the book, followed by condition details of this copy. The Zoller reference then appears in brackets (Zxxx). Books from Zoller section A are listed as Zxxx, those from section B as ZBxxx, to avoid confusion with Woods/Lamgworth numbers. The final entry is the price in dollars.

1 Winston Spencer Churchill (signed by Author)

A. MacCallum Scott. Methuen, London, 1905. This is the first biography published on Churchill, when he was a young MP of only 29 years age. A substantial book about the size of Malakand at 5.25 x 7.5 inches, xii + 270 pages and 40 page catalogue at rear, bound in medium blue cloth similar to the familiar Cassell war speech volumes, gilt titles on cover and spine, with 16 illustrations: photos or cartoons. An important book, giving an early view untainted by any knowledge of later greatness. Essential for the Churchill library, but a most uncommon title. This copy tight and unworn, large red stain on front cover, inscribed on free endpaper by Scott and dated 9/2/05. (Z1) $500.00

2 Winston Spencer Churchill

A. MacCallum Scott. Methuen, London, 1905. This is the first biography published on Churchill, when he was a young MP of only 29 years age. A substantial book about the size of Malakand at 5.25 x 7.5 inches, xii + 270 pages and 40 page catalogue at rear, bound in medium blue cloth similar to the familiar Cassell war speech volumes, gilt titles on cover and spine, with 16 illustrations: photos or cartoons. An important book, giving an early view untainted by any knowledge of later greatness. Essential for the Churchill library, but a most uncommon title. Here is an especially clean bright copy. Binding tight, no stains, gilt bright. Owner name on endpaper. Small bookseller blindstamp on free endpaper. (Z1) $250.00

3 Winston Churchill in Peace and War

A. MacCallum Scott. London, George Newnes, 1916. An update version of the original by this author from 1905, to include details on the Dardanelles. The penultimate chapter is entitled "The Downfall". Bound in bright red cloth stamped in black, 162 pages, no illustrations. Here is a superb copy in the original dustwrapper. Book is tight and unworn. The red cloth shows some faint sunning towards the edges. No inscriptions, foreedges even and unspotted. The pictorial dustwrapper is darkened on the spine, and has losses at spine ends, incl a 9 x 15 mm triangle at base. (Z6) $300.00

4 The Winstonburg Line

Sitwell, Osbert. London, Hendersons, (1919). A 20 page pamphlet in orange wraps, which publishes 3 highly critical newspapers articles (verses) on Churchill. Caricature on cover and title page. This is Sitwell's first published work, so also in demand from that side. Scarce. Overhanging edges of soft covers are wrinkled as usual. Occasional foxing. (Z8) $250.00

5 The Economic Consequences of Mr. Churchill

Keynes, John Maynard. London, The Hogarth Press, 1925. In this 32 page pamphlet, the famed economist is highly critical of Churchill's decision to go on the gold standard. This is a triple dip collectible- the subject is Churchill, the author is Keynes, and it was published by the Woolf's Hogarth Press. Scarce, fragile, and important. Bound in pale green wraps. The wraps are unevenly browned towards edges as usual. Spine worn and cracked, but still holding. Owner name on front cover. (Z10) $200.00

6 Winston Churchill, Being an account of the life of the Right Hon. Winston

Ephesian (C.E.B. Roberts). London, Mills and Boon, 1927. A good full length biography done in the 20's. This first edition is a larger book than later ones at 6 x 9 inches. 272 pages, 11 illustrations. Attractive binding similar to The World Crisis in smooth navy cloth stamped in gilt. Clean bright copy in the scarce original dustwrapper from 1927. The dj is darkened on the spine and worn at edges. (Z11a) $250.00

7 Winston Churchill, Being an account of the life of the Right Hon. Winston

Ephesian (C.E.B. Roberts). London, Mills and Boon, 1927. A good full length biography done in the 20's. This first edition is a larger book than later ones at 6 x 9 inches. 272 pages, 11 illustrations. Attractive binding similar to The World Crisis in smooth navy cloth stamped in gilt. Book is very clean and bright, edges even and white. In correct original dustwrapper, darkened on spine, losses at head of spine to 14 mm deep, front cover of dj creased and torn. (Z11a) $180.00

8 BATTLE: The Life Story of the Rt. Hon. Winston S. Churchill

Martin, Hugh. London, Sampson, Low, Marston & Co., 1932. The first edition of this title is worth seeking as it is much larger than the wartime reprints and contain material which was later cut. Martin was a journalist who was present at many important events in Churchill's early career, so writes with authority. Usually bound in black, 5.5 x 9 ins, 246 pages, index, 16 illustrations. Here is a copy in the scarce pictorial dustwrapper. Book is crisp and unworn, gilt bright, but there are some areas of the black cloth which have condensation stains. Dustwrapper is bright and attractive, some edge wear and cracks and loss of a 40 x 10 mm piece along top edge of front cover. (Z16) $200.00

9 Winston Churchill and James II of England

Hay, Malcolm V.. London, Harding & More, 1934. A very scarce title, 66 pages, card covers. Primarily a criticism of Churchill's treatment of James II in MARLBOROUGH. This copy one of the scarce blue cloth hardback copies, stamped in blind on front cover, gilt on spine. VG copy, spine a little sunned, contents clean. Laid in is a letter from 1952 when this books sold for six shillings. (Z17) $250.00

10 Winston Churchill and James II of England

Hay, Malcolm V.. London, Harding & More, 1934. A very scarce title, 66 pages, card covers. Primarily a criticism of Churchill's treatment of James II in MARLBOROUGH. Crisp unworn copy, spine a little darkened. The last one of these I had was from the Cloke collection in 1997. (Z17) $225.00

11 Concerning Winston Spencer Churchill

Arthur, Sir George. London, Heinemann, 1940. One of the first bio's published of the new PM in 1940, now an elusive title. Written by an old soldier who served in Egypt and the Boer war, 200 pp, index, 5 x 7.5 ins, bound in black cloth, red stampings. Book is clean and unworn, some puckering of cloth on spine. Dustwrapper is clipped, clean bright spine, loss of a 15 x 6 mm piece at head of spine. (Z19) $40.00

Jaffa, Harry V. (ed). Durham, Carolina Academic Press, 1981. A collection of 16 essays by historians organised by the Winston S. Churchill Association. Contributors include Wallin, Emmert, Gilbert, Jaffa. An extremely elusive title, from the same low volume publisher who did By Ships Alone. 279 pages. Book is tight, clean and unworn. Dustwrapper is unclipped, some barely noticeable tape reinforcements on edges, no losses. (Z446) $150.00

145 Churchill's Indian Summer

Seldon, Anthony. Hodder & Stoughton, London, 1981. Subtitled "The Conservative Government 1951-55". Authoritative study of Churchill's peacetime administration. Based on extensive research and numerous personal interviews. 667 pages, index, extensive notes and references, appendices on polls, ministers, by-elections, legislation. An elusive title. Fine bright copy in clean unclipped dustwrapper, no losses or tears. (Z453) $60.00

146 By Ships Alone: Churchill and the Dardanelles

Wallin, Jeffrey D.. Carolina Academic Press, Durham, 1981. A scarce title from an academic press on this critical period in Churchill's life. 210 pages, photos, maps, bibliography, index. Prof. Wallin is now on the Churchill Center academic panel and spoke at the recent Williamsburg Conference. New copy still in publisher's shrinkwrap (Z455) $225.00

147 By Ships Alone: Churchill and the Dardanelles

Wallin, Jeffrey D.. Carolina Academic Press, Durham, 1981. A scarce title from an academic press on this critical period in Churchill's life. 210 pages, photos, maps, bibliography, index. Prof. Wallin is now on the Churchill Center academic panel and spoke at the recent Williamsburg Conference. Fine unused copy in dustwrapper, which shows a slight amount of wear through on spine near bottom. (Z455) $150.00

148 Churchill und Roosevelt aus kontinental-europäischer Sicht

Schwinge, Erich. Marburg, N.G. Elwet, 1983. 108 pages, notes at end, text in German. Bound in white card covers. Clean tight copy, 3rd printing (Z457) $55.00

149 Sir Winston Churchill Exhibition of Paintings

Wayne, Wylma (ed). London, Wylma Wayne Fine Art, 1982. The highly prized exhibition catalogue from Wylma Wayne galleries for the special exhibition of Churchill paintings in 1982. A4 size, 69 numbered pages, glossy paper, numerous illustrations in colour and monochrome, details of owners, etc. Scarce. Clean tight copy, no notes or markings. (Z459) $60.00

150 Churchill's World Crisis as History

Prior, Robin. Canberra, Croom Helm, 1983. The author analyzes THE WORLD CRISIS sometimes critically. 339 pages, index. Set in typewriter font, this was a low budget production with a small print run and is now a modern rarity. Clean tight copy. Dustwrapper is unclipped, lightly sunned on spine, residue of label or price tag on back. (Z466) $350.00

151 Winston Churchill's World View

Thompson, Kenneth W.. Louisiana State Univ. Press, Baton Rouge, 1983. A scholarly study of Churchill's underlying political principles and goals. 364 pp, index, footnotes. Another elusive University Press title. Clean tight copy in bright unclipped dustwrapper, a few tiny edge cracks. Inscribed by author on half title page. (Z467) $75.00

152 Churchill and Roosevelt: The Complete Correspondence

Kimball, Warren F.. Princeton Univ. Press, Princeton, 1984. A massive work in 3 vols, over 2150 pages, well indexed and annotated by Kimball. This set is the hardbound edition in cloth with dustwrappers. An invaluable reference, but hardly bedtime reading. Fine new set of 3 vols in dj's. (Z475) $250.00

156 Churchill's War vol I: The Struggle for Power

Irving, David. Australia, Veritas, 1988. The ultimate in revisionism ( or reality denial). Published in Australia due to fear of UK libel laws. 666 pages. This one is hard to find now. Book is tight and unworn, some marks on front cover, small stain on top page edges. Dustwrapper unclipped, no tears. Signed by author on half title page. (Z503a) $45.00

157 Churchill's Bodyguard

Murray, Edmund. W.H. Allen, London, 1988. Ed Murray, from Scotland Yard, was Churchill's bodyguard from 1950-1965. This is his story, including early tales of adventure in the Foreign Legion. Plenty of interesting stories and pictures. 302 pages paperback. VG copy, inscribed by the author "Inscribed for Fred with my very best wishes. Edmund Murray". (Z504) $35.00

153 Churchill d'Angleterre

Cohen, Albert. Paris, Lieu Commun, 1985. 64 pages, 4 x 8 inches, in grey card covers printed red and black. Scarce Fine unused copy. (Z479) $40.00

158 Winston Churchill

Matthews, Rupert. Hove UK, Wayland, 1988. For young children, 32 pages, large type, photos and drawings in colour, laminated hardcovers. Crisp unused copy. The endpaper bears a small stamp from the primary school in Wybrow's village. (Z507) $35.00

154 Winston S. Churchill: Philosopher and Statesman

Fowler, Michael. Lanham MD, Univ. Press of America, 1985. This academic study is from a series on leaders and credibility. 84 pages with notes and bibliography. Issued in both silver card covers and navy cloth. Now a very scarce title. Fine copy in cloth (Z483) $150.00

159 Churchill 1924-1940

Birkenhead, Robin. Privately printed, 1989. This is the sequel to the well known biography by the Earl of Birkenhead. Several successive authors died and it was finally printed privately. The binding and dustwrapper match the original volume, so they make a nice set, but this volume was never sold and only a few copies were produced for friends of the family. Very scarce. Fine copy in dustwrapper. (Z513b) $300.00

155 The Turning Point

Sainsbury, Keith. Oxford, OUP, 1985. Subtitled Roosevelt, Stalin, Churchill, and Chiang Kai-Shek, 1943 The Moscow, Cairo, and Teheran Conferences. This serious study concentrates on the Teheran Conference as other books have ignored it. 373 pages, extensive notes, index. A very scarce title. Fine fresh copy in bright unworn dustwrapper. (Z487) $70.00

160 Winston Churchill: An Unbreakable Spirit

Driemen, J.E. . Minneapolis, Dillon Press, 1990. This brief bio of 128 pages has some photos and a short index. It seems aimed at Junior High level. Bound in blue cloth with a nice pictorial jacket. Hard to find copies other than library discards. Fine copy in bright unclipped dustwrapper. (Z527) $30.00

161 Churchill, The Great Game and Total War

Jablonsky, David. London, Frank Cass, 1990. An unusual and scarce title. The phrase "great game" refers to the use of deception and intelligence. Total war refers to the involvement of entire populations as in WW2. Col. Jablonsky analyzes how Churchill was influenced by the Boer War and WW1. See review in FH75. Published both as a hardback (scarce) and trade paperback. Fine unused copy in dustwrapper. (Z530) $70.00

162 Churchill: The Making of a Grand Strategist

Jablonsky, David. Carlisle PA, US Army War College, 1990. Col. Jablonsky has produced an interesting study of how Churchill's military and political background prepared him the complexity of the 2nd World War at a strategic level. See review in FH 76. 98 pages, card covers, which I have seen in blue, red, and green. Crisp copy in blue covers, some rubbing. (Z531) $40.00

163 Foreign Policy and Arms Control: Churchill's Legacy

Thompson, Kenneth W.. Lanham MD, University Press of America, 1990. An obscure title from an equally obscure publisher written by the author of Churchill's World View (Z467). 141 pages in card covers. Clean unused copy. (Z538) $60.00

164 Churchill: A Life (signed)

Gilbert, Martin. London, Heinemann, 1991. A comprehensive single volume bio by the Official Biographer. This is a complete new text, not an abridgement of the 8 volume work. Highly recommended. 1066 pages, lots of photos, index. This copy signed on title page by author. Edges off white, dustwrapper has wrinkles and slight edge wear. (Z542) $75.00

165 In Search of Churchill

Gilbert, Martin. Harper Collins, London, 1994, 1st edition. This book is an ABSOLUTE MUST for all Churchill enthusiasts. Unquestionably Gilbert's best book ever, highly readable, amusing. It tells the story of Gilbert's long involvement in tracking down the history of Winston Churchill, beginning with his time as research assistant for Randolph Churchill, about whom there are loads of wonderful tales. Please see the review in Finest Hour 84, which sums it up as "Pure Gold". 338 pages, index, unique photos. Fine copy in dj, inscribed by author on title page, together with ALS 'Here is my book duly signed.' (Z574) $80.00

166 The Greatest Story never Told: Winston Churchill and the Crash of 1929

Riott, Pat. OakBrook IL, Nanoman Press, 1994. An interesting conspiracy book about how Churchill conspired to cause the Stock Market crash and the great depression. 215 pp paperback. Clean copy, spine never cracked. (Z582) $30.00

167 From Winston with Love and Kisses

Sandys, Celia. Sinclair-Stevenson, London, 1994. The first edition (English) of Celia's first book. The Young Churchill 1874-1895, with superb colour illustrations of letters and ephemera. This new copy found left over from the launch at Chartwell in 1994, signed by the author on title page. (Z585) $40.00

168 Churchill: The Member for Woodford (Inscribed)

Thomas, David. Ilford, Frank Cass, 1995. David Thomas was an experienced historical writer and also a member of ICS. He spent many years interviewing those who worked with Churchill in his parliamentary constituency of Woodford, Essex (North east of London). He has come up with a wealth of new material in this book. 223 pages, fully indexed, many tables and photos. As many of the original participants have now died, this book will be the standard work on this subject. This copy in card covers inscribed by the author on title page. (Z602) $65.00

169 Winston Churchill and Emery Reves

Gilbert, Martin. Austin, Univ. of Texas Press, 1997. Subtitled: Correspondence 1937-1964. Emery Reves was aliterary agent who took Churchill's published works to the non-english speaking world, and very succesfully. This book publishes their correspondence with supporting deatil by Gilbert. Fine copy in dustwrapper, signed by author on title page. (Z620) $80.00

170 Churchill Arhundredets Person

Højris, René. Copenhagen, Forlaget Roger, 1999. There is no question about who is man of the century in this book by Denmark's greatest Churchill collector. Has chapters on a variety of subjects including Churchill and cigars, Hitler, Roosevelt, Clemmie, hats etc. Excellent coverage of Churchill's visit to Denmark with many photos I have not seen elsewhere. Definitive list of books by and about Churchill in Danish. Please note that the text is in Danish. new copy, signed by author on title page. (Z645) $30.00
