Notes to Catalogue 120

It has been 8 months since I did one of these NEW ACQUISITIONS catalogues and I constantly get requests for such offerings, so here is another. This catalogue is full of Churchill material you won't find elsewhere or would have to pay big money.

Orders can be placed by phone, email, or post. Email and phone are best as they still get through even if I am away. Please note new email address. Do not send payment with order, as availability needs to be confirmed.

Shipping is free to USA for all orders over $50.00, except large prints and framed items

Payment can be by check in dollars, Sterling cheque, or by Visa or Mastercard. For credit card orders, please provide card number, expiry date, and the three extra digits on the back by the signature. Credit card details can also be sent securely via www.wscbooks.com. Just place an order for any book and send the details via the secure server, then just tell me what you really want.

Your satisfaction is important. Any item may be returned within 7 days for any or no reason.

- New Guide to books by Churchill

1 Churchill article in NASH'S Magazine August 1928

.. This issue includes a character sketch Of H.H. Asquith, which later appeared in Great Contemporaries. These old issues of Nash's are very hard to find- most were collected in paper drives during WW2. See Woods C132, which incorrectly calls it Nash's Pall Mall, an error corrected in Cohen. Bright cover, severely rusted staples, both covers detached, but present. $120.00

2 Churchill biscuit tin

.. These decorated metal boxes originally came full of biscuits (as in cookies), but I have found them to wonderful storage boxes and also very useful for carrying bananas on airplanes. 8 x 10 inches, depth about 1.75 ins. Shows some signs of use. $15.00

3 1950 special brew for Churchill in Denmark 1950

.. The special commemorative brew produced by Carlsberg Breweries of Denmark in 1950 to mark Churchill's visit to Denmark. The bottle bears a special label identifying it and stating "Not For Sale". Several cases were delivered to Churchill and the rest presumably drunk by the executives of Carlsberg. For more details see R. Hojris' book on Churchill p. 264-5. This bottle unopened with foil wrap around top. Note: We make no representations as to the condition of the beer within. Very scarce. $100.00

4 Churchill article A KING IS CROWNED in Collier's 15 May 1937

.. This article describes the coronation of King George VI and gives some background for American readers. 3 pages with illustrations. This copy has some damp damage resulting in eating away at the top of the front cover and first page, and some red stains on later pages, hence low cost. $20.00

5 My Early Life, audio book

.. This consists of two cassettes in a plastic case, so is an abridged version. read by Robert Hardy. $18.00

6 Postcard Sail on O Ship of State

.. This two colour postcard reproduces the famous lines exchanged between Churchill and FDR in 1940. Printed by Tuck's card, unused clean, bright card. $35.00

7 Churchill article LAND OF CORN AND LOBSTERS in Collier's 5 August 1933

.. This 3 page article is, of course, about the USA. This article appears nowhere else except the Collected Essays. Woods C218. There are some browned areas on the covers and small losses on rear cover. $48.00

8 Inscribed 2 volume set of JENNIE, The Life of Lady Randolph Churchill

.. Prentice-Hall, NY 1969-71, first editions. . The ultimate bio of Winston's mother, in two volumes of 404 and 498 pages, lots of photos, indices. Long inscription to Michael Wybrow on endpaper of first volume, vol 2 has a review slip addressed to Wybrow, no doubt arranged by his friend, the author. Clean tight copies in unclipped dustwrappers, some minor edge wear. These books are far from scarce, but this may be the most interesting set to be found. $60.00

9 My African Journey as serialised in STRAND Magazine 1908

.. Here are bound volumes 35 and 36, covering Jan-Dec of 1908. Included are the 9 issues from March through November that have the first publication of Churchill's My African Journey. These volumes were bound at the time in half red leather. the leather spines have dried out over the years and almost completely flaked, resulting in seriously UGLY books. $100.00

10 Churchill article in October 1936 STRAND magazine

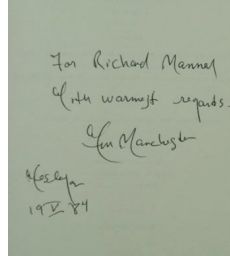

.. This individual Issue of STRAND for October 1936 contains article "The Tragic Story of Parnell" by Churchill. 10 pages, 8 illustrations, the story of Charles Stewart Parnell. Striking illustration of WSC on cover, one of only two Strand issues to have this. Clean bright copy, some losses at base of spine. $85.00

11 Souvenir mug with handle

.. This porcelain mug is a bit over 3.5 inches high. The back side has the famous quote on the few. Bottom simply says England. $9.00

16 The Last Lion: 1874-1932, inscribed copy

Manchester, William. Little, Brown, Boston, 1983, first trade edition.. There has been so much praise form this book that I hardly need repeat it. It stands alone between the many competent one volume bios, and the massive Official Biography, enhanced by Manchester's superb prose. the British and American editions of Vol I are nearly identical, save for the publishers name. 973 pages, index, notes, extensive bibliography, a few photos. Hardback has been out of print for years. Inscribed on the first leaf: For Richard Mannel with warmest regards Wm Manchester Wesleyan 19 V 84. Fine fresh copy in unclipped dustwrapper with price on flap, NOT a book club. $200.00

Eade, Charles. (editor). London, Hutchinson, 1953, 1st edition. . A very useful collection of essays, belongs in every Churchill library. Forty essays on Churchill by both friends and foes. First editions are large impressive books, 6 x 9 inches, 528 pages, index, illustrations. This copy belonged to well known historian A.L. Rowse and has his name on the pastedown. Book is clean, unworn, good deep blue on page tops. Dustwrapper is unclipped, but worn and faded. $15.00

15 DUNKIRK TO BERLIN a map of the wartime journeys of Churchill.

.. A large (36 x 46 in) map in full colour elaborately decorated with heraldic devices, pictures of planes and ships in which Churchill traveled. Looks great mounted. As issued, folded, in cardboard slipcase. Sometimes offered at astonishing prices by prestige shops, buy it here for only $35.00

20 My Dear Mr. Churchill, inscribed copy

Graebner, Walter. Michael Joseph, London, 1965. The author first met Churchill as a LIFE magazine journalist in 1945, and over the next 20 years came to know him well, as he visited and traveled with Churchill. Not a biography, this book is a personal observation of Churchill. Recommended and inexpensive. In black ink on the free endpaper: To Arthur Brown- with all good wishes Walter Graebner London May 12 1965. Clean tight unworn copy in VG unclipped dustwrapper. $50.00

21 plaster model of standing Churchill

.. This crude plaster figure stands 7 inches tall. Hole in mouth but cigar gone, some chips in legs. Get this out of my sight! $7.00

26 Large 1954 Calendar with Churchill portrait

.. This calendar is 18 x 27 inches and is made of very thick cardboard. The colours are vivid, the calendar pad is untouched. Other than the rust on the staples, this looks like it was sold new last week. A remarkable survivor from 53 years ago. $200.00

95 Jackdaw no. 65 Battle of Britain

.. Many Churchill collectors will be familiar with the Jackdaw of Churchill done by Martin Gilbert. A Jackdaw is a folder of facsimile documents. This one by Basil Collier contains 14 documents including a large map of the fighter defences, aircraft identification guide, sample combat report, and small flags to be placed on the big map. Good fun here. $15.00

100 V for Victory postcard

.. This charming card in full colour made by Valentine's. You ask what is our aim? Clean bright card, no wear. $75.00

101 wartime coloured postcard of WSC (French??)
 . . This matt finish card is unusual, and almost certainly continental. The back of teh card says: Edicion: Casa Itturat. Clean unworn card. The first one of these I have seen. $120.00

102 set of 5 postcards, kiddie cartoons and Churchill quotes.
 . . Each card has a different cartoon by Dinah of a little kid. On the back is a Churchill quote. These used but unstamped cards each have a short message from "sugarwife" to her man. On the VE day card she says "at long last". 15.00 each or all 5 for $50.00

103 Elaborate plaque of The Few speech
 . . This display is 11 x 8.5 inches, printed in colour and silver ink was probably sold by the RAF, as it features the RAF emblem and motto. It has a glass or plexiglass sheet over it and blue edging. Very pretty. $100.00

104 Mark Twain's Jest Book
 Clemens, Cyril. Mark Twain Journal, Kirkwood MO., 1965. This pamphlet of 28 pages in card covers publishes a number of tributes and comments about Mark Twain, including a 1943 letter from Churchill thanking the Mark Twain Society for the gold medal they awarded him. This copy signed by the editor Cyril Clemens. This is Cohen B158. $45.00

105 Shall We Commit Suicide?
 Churchill, Winston S.. NY, Eilert Printing Co., 1924. This tall slim pamphlet publishes Churchill's article on the horror of future war which first appeared in Nash's Pall mall of September 1924. 141 Onwards to Victory (signed copy)

Churchill, Winston S.. Cassell, London, 1944, 1st edition. The fourth of seven volumes of Churchill's war speeches published by Cassell. First edition. Publishes speeches made in the year 1943. Series binding in light blue cloth, gilt titles on spine, 278 pages. This copy signed by Churchill on the title page in a shaky hand, probably 1950's. Book is clean and tight, with very bright gilt titles. There is foxing on the page edges and occasionally in the text. It is difficult to find signed copies of these wartime books, as he was too busy at the time to sign books. $6000.00

146 The River War (signed copy)

Churchill, Winston S.. Eyre & Spottiswoode, London, 1949. Fourth printing of this one volume abridged edition first printed in 1933 but using the setting from the 1902 edition. Bound in mustard yellow cloth with gilt titles on spine only. There are 22 maps, many folding and some in two colours. 381 pages, index, appendices. Book is clean, binding firm, gilt dull but readable. Page edges even, top edges have a few scattered spots. Contents clean, maps neatly folded. Signed by Churchill on the half title in the shaky hand typical of late 1950's signature, appropriate for this late printing. $6000.00

142 The World Crisis 1915 (signed jacketed copy)

Churchill, Winston S.. London, Thornton Butterworth, 1923, 1st edition. The second volume of Churchill's classic First World war history, the volume has much on the Dardanelles. 57 pages, index, numerous maps and plans, some folding and coloured. Signed and dated 1923 on the first leaf after the endpaper. This is a clean crisp copy with a lovely spine and bright gilt. There is some light foxing, as usual for this pulpy paper. Included is the very scarce correct first printing dustwrapper, whose spine is darkened and has some wear and losses at the ends. If you are collecting signed copies in jackets, this should fill a gap. $9000.00

147 Till the Hour of Victory

Bound in same smooth navy cloth as other volumes in the series, gilt on spine with blind stamping on cover. 474 pages, index, 8 maps and charts, several folding and coloured. Book is very tight and crisp, probably never read. Protected by a dj, the cloth is very clean and the gilt bright. Contents exceptionally clean with no foxing noted. No names or inscriptions. Dustwrapper is correct 1st, unclipped, spine is darkened and has lost a 40 x 40 mm triangle at base of spine. See photo. $700.00

149 Never Give in and 5 others in a boxed set

various. Hallmark Cards, 1967-68. Most of you will be familiar with that little book NEVER GIVE IN published in 1967. What I did not know until this turned up was that this book is one of a series of six on diverse subjects such as Civil War, dogs, and Mark Twain, all in a similar format. Here are all six as sold in a brown slipcase. Books are all fine in dustwrappers, protected by the slipcase, which is split along one edge. $32.00

145 The Second World War (signed set)

Churchill, Winston S.. Cassell, London, 1948-54, 1st editions. The British first edition of Churchill's memoirs is superior to the American or Canadian editions as it includes Churchill's final revisions and has better folding two colour maps. Bound in black cloth, gilt titles on spines. Numerous maps and diagrams, but no photos. Signed on the half title of volume IV in a very shaky hand, probably 1960's or after the 1953 stroke, etc. believed to be from C.C. Woods, one of Churchill's literary assistants, as there are his initials and a note stating Mr. Woods copy and comments about corrections. There is also a note on the first blank leaf stating checked for corrections and dated 12.9.56. Books are tight
