Notes to Catalogue 123

Douglas Hall, of Grantham in England, started collecting Churchill memorabilia in the 1940's. I had the good fortune of viewing his vast collection at his home on several occasions. Douglas became an expert on this material and wrote a series of articles in Finest Hour and then truly did "write THE book" on Churchilliana, which was published in 2002 as THE BOOK OF CHURCHILLIANA, which is now the standard reference and is mentioned constantly in this catalogue. Other references are to Ron Smith's 1989 book IMAGES OF GREATNESS, and to catalogues produced by Churchillbooks many years ago for collections of Messrs. Rivkin and Carmichael. I do still have a few signed copies of Hall's book left in stock at $45.00.

Regrettably, Douglas was misdiagnosed by the NHS and passed away last year. His fabulous collection was auctioned in England in September, and I was fortunate to acquire a number of these items from that sale. The bidding was heavy with some record prices seen. For example, the Parianware bust shown on p. 28 went for about $2600.00. The current weakness of the dollar has made all this English material more expensive. Please do not expect to see these unusual items for what you saw on ebay a few years ago.

There are a number of medals in this catalogue, and you may find the prices shocking, but bear in mind that the price of silver has trebled over the past few years. I was selling the sets of 24 Centenary medals in silver for $250.00, but now the 24 one ounce silver medals are worth almost $400.00 in scrap value alone.

Orders can be placed by phone, email, or post. Email and phone are best as they still get through even if I am away. Please note new email address. Do not send payment with order, as availability needs to be confirmed.

Shipping is extra at cost, as some of these large delicate items will require exceptional packaging, and rest assured that our lovely packing department will do a good job.

Payment can be by check in dollars, Sterling cheque, or by Visa or Mastercard. For credit card orders, please provide card number, expiry date, and the three extra digits on the back by the signature. Credit card details can also be sent securely via www.wscbooks.com. Just place an order for any book and send the details via the secure server, then just tell me what you really want.
