Notes to Catalogue 128

Churchill's signature has long been a valuable and popular collectable. This catalogue concentrates on signed material. There is a lot of new material that I have not catalogued previously, as well as some items that I have had for a few years. Recognizing that there is a recession, I have made substantial reductions of 20%-50% on the older material.

Contents:

1-25	Signed Books
26-49	Autograph letters and paper documents
50-62	printed or facsimile signatures
65-71	signed photos and original art
72-76	Churchill family autographs

Everything is guaranteed. I have examined all of the signatures with an 80 power magnifier. Anything may be returned for any or no reason.

The 2009 Churchill Conference

The Churchill Centre (www.winstonchurchill.org) is having their annual conference in San Francisco 10-12 September 2009. I will be setting up a small bookstore at the conference with a modest selection of books and nearly all my ephemera and posters. All collectors in the Bay area are invited to visit this event. Locals are not required to sign up for the full Conference.

1 Marlborough: His Life and Times (Inscribed set in dj's)

The first trade edition from Harrap is a lovely deluxe binding. Bound in rich burgundy cloth over bevelled boards, the family arms gilt on front covers, top edges gilt. Books measure 6.25 x 9.25 inches and are nearly 2 inches thick. Books are all crisp fine copies, unfaded spines, bright gilt, foreedges exceptionally clean, and even. Dustwrappers are all clean, correct, unclipped. Vol. I dj has a short closed tear (old tape) on top edge of front cover; vol. II dj has two chips 10 x 5 mm from top edge of spine; vol 3,4 complete and attractive. All volumes have the owners name and purchase date on the front pastedown and a contemporary book review laid down on the rear pastedown. Volume III is inscribed on the free endpaper "Inscribed for R.D.H. Emerson by Winston S. Churchill November 1936". Volume IV is inscribed on the free endpaper "Inscribed for R.D.H. Emerson by Winston S. Churchill September 1938". This set would be a collector's dream in this condition unsigned; the inscriptions makes it a real prize. $10000.00

2 The World Crisis 6 volumes complete, each inscribed to Charles Hughes

An inscribed set of THE WORLD CRISIS, with all six volumes signed by Churchill. I must confess I had to research him, but Charles Evans Hughes, best known as the Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court in the 1930's, was also a presidential candidate in 1916, in a very close race in which some papers incorrectly announced Hughes as the winner instead of Wilson. Hughes first met Churchill at the Naval Treaty negotiations, where the Great powers agreed on ratios of warships which each was allowed to build. Hughes was a frequent visitor to Europe throughout his life, but we can only speculate on the exact circumstances in which he met Churchill in April, 1938, the date in the inscriptions in the books. The books are all later printings which would have been in bookshops in 1938, so I would guess that Hughes had some sort of engagement to see Churchill, and bought these books specifically to be signed on that occasion, as none of them appears to have been used or read. The inscriptions in vols. I and II are the same: Inscribed for Charles Hughes by Winston S. Churchill April 1938". Vol. III again on the endpaper has "Inscribed by Winston S. Churchill April 1938" and above that is C. Hughes in a different hand. It also appears that Churchill started to write "inscribed for" and then crossed out "for" and then wrote "by". Vol. IV, V, and VI are the same as III except there is no crossed through word. Vols I-V are Thornton Butterworth later impressions, all fine clean unworn copies with white unspotted edges and bright gilt. Vol. VI (The Unknown War, The Eastern Front) is the Thornton Butterworth Keystone Library edition of 1937, which is bound in a different lighter blue cloth, and has sunning on the spine, but is otherwise clean and unworn. This is a lovely matching set of signed books. This comes from the Wybrow collection and is an unusual opportunity to acquire a set of six volumes all signed by Churchill, and in such outstanding condition. $30000.00

3 The World Cisis 1915 (signed) Thornton Butterworth, London, 1923, 1st edition. A very good copy in original cloth of the second volume of The World Crisis, signed on the blank leaf before the half title page "from Winston S. Churchill Jan. 1924." Spine is clean and well rounded with bright gilt, a few spots on page edges, binding firm. $3600.00

4 The Hinge of Fate, vol IV of The Second World War (signed)

A signed copy of THE HINGE OF FATE, being the fourth volume of THE SECOND WORLD WAR, published London, Cassell, 1st edition 1951. Signed on the half title page "Inscribed by Winston S. Churchill" in black ink. Laid in is an exchange of letters between a Mr. L.J. Boon and Churchill's secretary Jane Portal, dated January 1955 when Churchill was still at Downing St. The book also bears Mr. Boon's bookplate on the pastedown.

n.b. the half title page appears to have been sliced in half horizontally and the repair is, of course, visible, although barely so in the photo. Otherwise a Very Good unfoxed copy, top edges faded, in an average dustwrapper. $3750.00

5 A Roving Commission (SIGNED COPY)

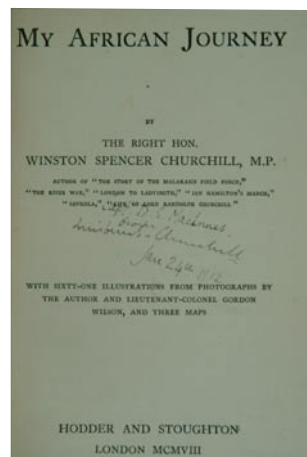

Scribner's. NY, 1941. First printing of the third American edition of Churchill's autobiography. Bound in grey cloth with gilt titles. Book is clean and unworn, dustwrapper darkened on spine, wear at edges. Signed in ink on the title page WS CHURCHILL. $3200.00

6 My African Journey (Inscribed 1st edition)

An important book for several reasons. The only Churchill first in decorated cloth and the only "travel and exploration" title. Bound in bright red cloth, gilt titles on spine and a woodcut illustration of Churchill standing by a dead rhino, blocked in blue, grey, and black. xiv plus 226 pages. Profusely illustrated with 61 photos taken by Churchill on his trip through British East Africa and then on down the Nile, undertaken in his position at the time of Under Secretary of State for the Colonies. Churchill demonstrates a sensitivity to the Africans that way ahead of its time. The photos are tipped in rather than bound, so copies should always be collated to verify the presence of all photos and maps. Original cloth retains good colour, but some light wear and a few marks, gilt still bright. Endpapers seem remarkably white, maybe replacements, but then all the pages are far whiter than I normally see on this title. There is a faint red stain on the foreedges of the final leaves. Inscribed on the title page Capt. D.S. MacInnes from Winston S. Churchill Jan 24th 1912. There is also a signature in pencil on the half title which appears to be MacInnes. $6000.00

7 Marlborough: His Life and Times (Inscribed set)

Inscribed on the front free endpaper of Book One "To Lettice Marston from Winston S. Churchill, Christmas 1947", and initialed "WSC" in the second Book as was Churchill's usual practice. Lettice Shillingford worked as secretary to Churchill from the end of the war into the 1950's. Her maiden name was Marston, but she met an RAF pilot named Shillingford whilst on a Churchill visit to an RAF base, and the rest is history. Miss Marston kept some detailed yet forbidden diaries of her time with Churchill, which I sold some years ago, along with a huge archive of documents which she had collected. She had gone to Potsdam with Churchill in 1945. She remained close to the Churchills for many years afterwards, especially Mrs. Churchill. This is indeed a good personal association copy. The books are clean and unworn with bright gilt and good dark red page tops. Dustwrappers are slightly tanned on spines and have losses at spine ends. One full signature, plus a set of initials. $7500.00

8 Marlborough: His Life and Times Vol. IV (with signature of 10th Duke)

Harrap, London, 1938, 1st edition. Book is VG with unclipped dustwrapper, tanned on spine. Laid in is a carbon copy of letter to His Grace the Duke of Marlborough requesting his signature on the Marlborough Books. Affixed to title page is a compliments slip dated Jan 1966 and an autograph "Marlborough." $400.00

9 The Second World War, signed in vol VI This is the BOMC edition of Churchill's best seller. 6 volumes, 5.5 x 8.5 inches, bound in brick red cloth. These BOMC printings have unstained top edges and no headbands. These are first printings with dates on title pages. Volume VI is signed on the front free endpaper "Winston S. Churchill." The signed volume has fading on the red covers. The other volumes are VG with chips and tears on the edges of the dustjackets. $2500.00

10 The Unrelenting Struggle (signed copy) The second of seven volumes of Churchill's war speeches published by Cassell. Publishes speeches made from Nov. 1940 to Dec. 1941. Signed Winston S. Churchill in ink on free endpaper in a good strong 1940's hand. Book is clean, gilt bright, bumped at head of spine, faint spots on page edges. Dustwrapper is bright, unclipped, a few edge chips. $3750.00

11 The World Crisis 1915 (signed jacketed first) Thornton Butterworth, London, 1923, 1st edition. The second volume of Churchill's classic First World war history, the volume has much on the Dardanelles. 57 pages, index, numerous maps and plans, some folding and coloured. Signed and dated 1923 on the first leaf after the endpaper. This is a clean crisp copy with a lovely spine and bright gilt. There is some light foxing, as usual for this pulpy paper. Included is the very scarce correct first printing dustwrapper, whose spine is darkened and has some wear and losses at the ends. If you are collecting signed copies in jackets, this should fill a gap. $7500.00

12 Marlborough: His Life and Times (signed in Vol. II) Churchill's monumental biography of his great ancestor, John Churchill, first Duke of Marlborough. Thoroughly researched in the family archives at Blenheim Palace, and assisted by several research assistants, this work was published in 4 volumes in 1933, 34, 36, 38 respectively. The first trade edition from Harrap is a lovely deluxe binding. Bound in rich burgundy cloth over bevelled boards, the family arms gilt on front covers, top edges gilt. Books measure 6.25 x 9.25 inches and are nearly 2 inches thick. All four are well illustrated with plates, facsimiles of documents and numerous maps and plans. A first class production which was well received at the time and is highly collectible now. Here is a Very Good set of first printings, signed by Churchill in Vol. II. As usual the first three volumes are lighter in shade on the spines than the fourth, but all still have reasonable colour. The foreedges are clean and even without foxing. Vols I and III have gift inscriptions on the endpapers. The signature is on the half title page and is a later signature, probably 1950's, maybe into the 60's. $3600.00

13 The World Crisis, 1st edition set inscribed in 3rd vol. .An impressive set, uniformly bound in smooth navy blue cloth, gilt title on spine and blind stamped titles on front cover. Numerous maps and plans, some folding and coloured. The only illustrations are 8 photos of key personalities in the final volume. Large attractive books, 6 x 9 inches, this first English edition is much preferred over the American. Inscribed in vol. III "Arthur Steel Maitland from Winston S. Churchill 3.3.27". Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland was a Conservative MP who held a number of minor government positions over the years and was Minister for Labour 1924-29, so a cabinet colleague of Churchill's. The inscription is dated the first day of publication. Perhaps everyone in the cabinet received an inscribed copy that day.. $5000.00

14 The Second World War, 6 volume set (signed in vol III) This is the BOMC edition of Churchill's best seller. 6 volumes, 5.5 x 8.5 inches, bound in brick red cloth.

Dustwrappers have some edge wear and the red spine of vol II is faded. $2700.00

15 A History of the English-Speaking Peoples, 4 vols.(signed in vol. II) Cassell, London, 1956-1958. 48 Churchill autograph in visitors book A page removed from a visitors book, size 10 x 8, with Churchill signature on an otherwise blank page. $400.00

Documents with Printed Signatures

50 Mentioned in Despatches Certificate 1919 A Mentioned in Despatches certificate from the Great War. In the British Forces, the entry level award is "mentioned in despatches" and when an individual is so mentioned this is recorded in his record and a certificate issued. This certificate issued to Cpl.G. Middup of the Royal Engineers. The certificate is signed by the Secretary of State for War, Winston S. Churchill. This signature is printed and part of the standard form. 8.5 x 7.25 inches on card stock, browned from age. Think what the sharks would ask on ebay. $75.00

50A. another Mentioned in Despatches, to Capt Bruce, R.E., clean, very white. $90.00

51 Volunteer Force Certificate 1919 A Volunteer Force Certificate from the First World War. Given in recognition of service to Pte. John Holt, and signed by the Secretary of State for War, Winston S. Churchill. Please note that this signature is printed on this standard form. 7.25 x 10 inches on card stock. These are sold on ebay for high prices as "hand-signed." $75.00

52 Lord Ismay Presentation, signed by 22 people

A very unusual 12 x 14.5 inch sheet of quality paper, mounted on board, which reads - A Dinner Given to Lord Ismay on the Occasion of the Publication of his Memoirs, September 26th, 1960. Filling the rest of the sheet are signatures in blue of 22 people- Churchill, Alexander, Ismay, Jacob, Auchinlek, Colin Coote, Cunningham, Slim, Spears, and Colville. Before you start taking out new mortgages- the really curious feature is that the signatures are all printed. I can only surmise that an original was done at the banquet and a copy supplied to each signatory, as I have never seen another of these. A delightful piece, begging to be framed, on its own or with photos of the participants. $500.00

53 Eightieth birthday thanks card from Churchill IN 1954, Churchill was 80. Besides all the usual wishes, a book (Servant of Crown and Commonwealth) was published with a wrap around featuring a card to send to Churchill, so the number of good wishes must have been enormous. These 4.5 x 3.5 inch cards with Churchill's signature were sent out by staff to the well wishers. The signature looks really good, but is printed. Also included is the envelope postmarked SW1 in December 1954 in which this card was sent. $80.00

Signed Photographs

65 Large signed photo of Churchill and Stanley Baldwin
 This pre-war photograph shows Churchill and Stanley Baldwin seated at the table in the Cabinet Office at Downing Street. The impish look on Churchill's face is priceless. Image size is about 14 x 11 inches. Both Baldwin and Churchill have signed on the mount below the image, and the photo is matted in its original mat with a cutout for the signatures. This appears to have spent many years on the wall in some official office and there is some sun toning to parts of the image. Lovely grub, indeed. 12500.00
